ON THE PASSING OF SENATOR EDWARD KENNEDY

HON. JESSE L. JACKSON, JR.

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 2009

Mr. JACKSON of Illinois. Madam Speaker, I rise today to express my condolences to the family and friends of one of my most prestigious colleagues, Senator Edward M. Kennedy.

Senator Kennedy lived one of the most extraordinary lives in American political history. He was the last brother of one of America's most storied families; one of our all-time great senators; and a champion for human rights. His legislative accomplishments have touched and improved the lives of virtually everyone who lived in this great country for the past half a century.

Albert C. Caswell approached me shortly after Senator Kennedy's funeral with a poem he wrote titled, "Our Nation's Tears". My colleagues may recognize Mr. Caswell's familiar face as he has served as a Tour Guide in the U.S. Capitol for the past 23 years. I was moved by Mr. Caswell's poem and he has asked that I submit it in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD. I ask unanimous consent to add my statement and his poem to the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD and I encourage my colleagues to read it.

OUR NATION'S TEARS

(By Albert Carey Caswell)

Our . . .
Our Nation's Tears . . .
As so now lie here!
For one of America's finest son's, this oh so cherished one . . .
A Champion, for Fathers, Mothers, Sisters,
Brothers, Daughters and Sons. . .
For Seniors, and our most precious of all ones . . . our Children . . .
For America, and all of these ones!
Our Lion of The Senate Ted, so very dear
As it's for or thee, we now so shed such tears
As down our quivering cheeks they now so
run!
All for you Ted, and your great American family my son . . .
And that great love story, that our Lord God
had so begun!
And that great Irish family, that came from far across those seas . . .

But, for a better life to be . . .
And that great void now so left, as upon our souls as now so etched . . .
And that great hole in all our hearts, this abyss . . .
Ah, but lies such depth . . .
All in this great caesium, with us you have
so left . . .
For this our nation, our Teddy bear . . . you have so blessed!
As our tears fall like the rains . . .
As it's for you Teddy, we now so cry out all
in our pain . . .
As comes from our swollen eyes . . .
As it's for or you, our shining Knight. . . we now so weep . . .
For in our heart's, you . . . we shall so keep!
As we pray to our Lord above, that your soul
he shall so reap!
For our True Champion, has so died!
As like Your Profile's in Courage, we too
must so rise!
As you have so taught our nation, so over
the many years . . .
That out of such loss, such heartache . . .
and such swollen tears . . .
That somehow, light too can come!
And that somehow, we must all so persevere!
With A Smile, With A Grin . . .
With The Heart of A Child, and a work ethic
so then!
And to cherish each new day, as it begins!
And make each new day count! Time and time, and time again!
And hold your families ever so close!
For this is life's full measure, that which so means the most!
Sail on my Son! We will hear your heart on the ocean's setting sun's . . .
Our beautiful brother from Boston!
For Heaven so hold's a place, for our most precious one!
For such men, of such courage, kindness,
style and grace . . .
And who have worked and prayed for redemption, in all they've faced!
And live by such undying Faith!
Of such men so bright, who have all our heart's so bathed in all their light . . .
As the baby bore the load, lesson's learned
. . . profiles in courage he so earned
How, Teddy raised his head each day. . . was
but a lesson for all of us to stay!
To take heart, to take pause . . . all in your pain, and remember his life cause . . .
To remember his smile, and ever his heart of a child . . .
And that up in Heaven on this day . . .
Four brothers are so reunited, in a football game . . .
"And remember, that the work goes on!"
"The cause endures!"
"The hope still lives!"
"And the dream shall never die!"
Ted, our most precious one . . . can you but not in Heaven hear my son?
All of Our Nation's swollen tears, these ones!
And for you, our Nation cry!
In loving memory of Senator Edward Kennedy, May our Lord bless you our warm son,
and your family.

RECOGNIZING JOYCE YAMAT MEYER FOR HER SERVICE TO THE FIRST DISTRICT OF WIS- CONSIN

HON. PAUL RYAN

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 2009

Mr. RYAN of Wisconsin. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor Joyce Yamat Meyer, our Washington office Chief of Staff and now Acting Chief of Staff over all office operations.

Joyce is a native of Wisconsin. Since 1995 we have worked together in several different offices. I myself was a Congressional staffer when I met Joyce. I quickly recognized her great abilities. When the member she worked for retired from the House of Representatives, I persuaded my employer, Senator BROWNBACK, to bring her on board.

After my election in 1998 I invited Joyce to become my Legislative Director. Since that time, her skills and knowledge have grown with her responsibilities. I have also been pleased to watch her become a wonderful wife, mom, and leader.

Joyce is one of my partners in serving the people of Wisconsin's First Congressional District. Her home town is Franklin, Wisconsin. Following state redistricting in 2002, she was thrilled to find that her home was now in the First District. Ever since, serving her home town neighbors has been a point of pride for Joyce.

I have worked with Joyce longer than anyone in my office. I am pleased to recognize Joyce Yamat Meyer for more than ten years of excellent work with me in serving the people of the First District.

HONORING BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

HON. JOHN B. LARSON

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 2009

Mr. LARSON of Connecticut. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, and the nationwide effort to fight one of the most prevalent cancers in the United States. For 25 years, we have used the month of October to highlight the admirable work in the campaign against breast cancer while also recognizing that we still have a great fight ahead of us. While there are over 2.5 million breast cancer survivors in the United States, at least 40,000 more women are dying every year. One out of every eight women is afflicted, and my home state of Connecticut has the third highest rate of new breast cancer cases in the country.

Recently the fight turned personal for me and my hometown of East Hartford. Judy Geier, a local 14-year veteran firefighter, wife of a police officer, and mother of five, was diagnosed with breast cancer in July and is currently undergoing chemotherapy. She expects surgery and radiation treatment in the near future. I am proud of how Judy has shown strength and courage in this battle, and how the East Hartford Fire Department, led by Fire Chief John Oates, and the entire town have rallied around Geier and her family during this trying time.

This was exemplified with the work of the Department did to bring the Pink Heals Tour to East Hartford. Founded by Arizona firefighter, Mr. Dave Graybill, the Pink Heals Tour is engaged in a nationwide mission, armed with a caravan of pink fire trucks, to raise funds and involvement in communities to prevent and treat breast cancer. When the East Hartford firefighters learned of the Pink Heals Tour and its mission, they worked hard to bring the Tour to East Hartford on behalf of
